BRISTOL MAN DIES OF STREET FIGHT STAB WOUNDS
Bristol, Conn., May 29.—Anthony Gannon, 34, of the Bristol hospital, died last night from wounds received late Saturday night when he and two others were stabbed in a street fight. Valentine Savino and Frank Marchione, alleged assaults of the three men, had their hearing continued for a week in city court today.

Gannon served in France in the 128th Regiment, 26th Division. Harold Linden and Harry Scarritt, the others wounded, are expected to recover.

MISKE GETS VERDICT OVER ROB ROYER
New York, May 29.—Billy Miske, St.
Paul, Minn., heavyweight, received the judge's decision in a slow 10 round contest tonight with Bob Royer of Chicago.
Except in the eighth round, when Royer had the better of a lively exchange of blows, Miske was the aggressor and in the tenth round sent his opponent to the ropes with several hard body punches.

KAPLAN GETS DECISION OVER LIEUT. BAIRD
Bridgeport, May 29.—Louis (Kid) Kaplan of Meriden, featherweight champion of New England, was given the judge's decision over Lieutenant Earl Bairst of Seattle, Wash., at the end of a twelve-round bout held in an open arena here tonight. Both boxers weighed 125 pounds.

FUNERALS
The funeral of Charles Drescher was held Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from his home, No. 269 Central avenue.
There was a very large attendance and there were many beautiful floral tributes.
The service was conducted by Rev. Frederick C. Williams, pastor of St. Andrew's church, Greenville. A Mass in Jesus and Heaven in St. Louis, were rendered by Mrs. William Crowe.

Members of the Odd Fellows, Eagles and the Greenville Lodge and Ladder company, acted as bearers and burial took place in the family plot in Yantic cemetery. A committal service was conducted by Rev. Mr. Williams.

A new life of Donald G. Mitchell (Mr.
Marvel), who once resided in the home now occupied by Principal Henry A. Turnell and family, has been written by Waldo H. Dunn.

A sign in 10-inch white letters, conspicuous against the red paint, informed traffic passing the tannery that the Norwich Belt Manufacturing Co., Inc., was established back in 1845.

According to New Haven rumors, the recent rise in the price of hay was due to the movement of the Canadian Pacific railroad to obtain a controlling interest.

Thursday, June 1, Miss Harriette Thompson and Richard Montgomery Gilchrist, Potter of Hartford are to be married at the Thompson summer home in Bolton at 2:30 o'clock.

the Connecticut company, not only raising chickens in the yard, but also conducting a business, but has ducks, geese and a brood of lively goslings.

From the all-time field day of the schools of East Lyme was originally planned because of the large number of children vaccinated the past week.

The railroad company finished laying the east of Saybrook, Junction last week. The big gauge went home to New Haven to start out to work on incom-pleted spots along the line.

Examinations of the 42,312 pupils in the 58 public schools in the Catholic diocese of Connecticut will begin June 1.
The state supervisor of schools is Rev. Edwin Flynn of West Hartford.

Safety-pin and shoestring peddlers, who have been numerous up to the school opening, are scarce. Most of the men are robust and healthy looking fellows, but say they come from Rhode Island and are strikers and cannot get work.

Connections and fishermen have a lay-over Saturday night and commence the week Sunday night as usual. The past week was a bad one financially, but a little better than any since the season started. Several crews tied up a week ago.
